Administrative history / Biographical sketch

---

Note

Harold Ross McKean was a 1934 graduate of Dalhousie Medical School and class winner of the Gold Medal. He was born in Toney Mills, Pictou County, in 1910. After completing post-graduate studies at the Royal Infirmary in Edinburgh, he served in both the British and Canadian Medical Corps before setting up a medical practice in Truro, Nova Scotia. Dr. McKean retired in 1984 and died in September 1991.

Custodial history

Records were donated to the Dalhousie University Archives by Elizabeth Day, daughter of Dr. McKean, in accession (48-91) in 1991.

---

Scope and content

---

Fonds consists of three cash journals and a cash book documenting financial aspects of Dr. McKean's medical practice.
