During the First World War, he left his studies and served with the No. 7 Dalhousie Unit, returning to complete his studies before moving to Halifax after the war. In 1926, Dr. MacKenzie was appointed Professor of Medicine at Dalhousie, a post he held until 1945. He was an active member in several professional associations, including past-president of the Medical Society of Nova Scotia from 1932-1933. Dalhousie University conferred the Honorary degree of Doctor of Laws upon him in 1950. Dr. MacKenzie passed away on May 12, 1958.
