Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

The No. 7 Stationary Hospital Benevolent Association was created in 1915 in response to the establishment of the No. 7 Canadian Stationary Hospital (Dalhousie University), an overseas hospital unit from Halifax that served in England and France, posted for over a year close to the front in the northern French village of Arques. The Benevolent Association established a fund to support members of the unit and their surviving relatives. In August 1975 the fund was closed out and the remainder of the monies transferred to Dalhousie University.

Custodial history

Records were donated to the Dalhousie University Archives by Leslie Pezzack in accession (2012-011) in 2012.

Scope and content

Fonds contains correspondence, a financial ledger, and financial statements.
