Custodial history

The bulk of the collection was donated by John Dunsworth in January 1974, with a second accession in January 1975. Miscellaneous theatre programs were donated by Sister Geraldine Anthony, English department, Mount Saint Vincent University, in 1975.

Scope and content

The fonds contains correspondence, production records, scripts, flyers, posters, programs, promotional materials, press reviews, financial records, organizational management, documents regarding the theatre building and property, workshop programming, as well as touring production records. There is extensive correspondence regarding script acquisition and production; some correspondents included Canadian and Haligonian playwrights. Many scripts contain annotations by directors and actors. Set drawings, lighting cues, props lists and theatre renovation plans are also part of this fonds.

Unprocessed materials from the fonds not included here amount to approximately 94 cm. Please consult the Archives staff for access.

Series: Scripts

Title: Scripts

Date: 1971-1973 (date of creation)

Scope and content:

Many scripts in the Pier One collection are written by Canadian playwrights. The group was also interested in Haligonian writers and local, non-professional theatre productions. Unproduced scripts are also included in this series. Annotated scripts contain notes regarding production and acting techniques, as well as revisions to the works for production purposes.

Physical description: 46 cm of textual records

Arrangement:

Produced scripts are arranged in chronological order by date of production. For precise dates refer to the detailed production schedule in the administrative history section of this finding aid. Unproduced scripts are listed alphabetically.
