Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

Two Planks and a Passion Theatre Company was founded in 1992 by co-artistic directors, Ken Schwartz and Chris O'Neill, in Canning, Nova Scotia. The company is dedicated to producing new Canadian works, with strong female roles and community relevance. Two Planks is also committed to bringing theatre to rural communities throughout Canada, touring twice a year throughout the Maritimes and nationally every three years.

Two Planks began with a modest one-woman show, See Bob Run, in 1992, and became nationally recognized in 1994 with the groundbreaking production of Butterbox Babies. In addition to producing plays, Two Planks offers theatre classes to young people, including summer theatre camps, works in arts advocacy, and participates in community outreach projects.

Custodial history

The fonds remained in the custody of the Two Planks and a Passion Theatre Company until it was donated to the Dalhousie University Archives in 2004.

Scope and content

Fonds documents the management and theatrical productions of Two Planks and a Passion Theatre Company from 1992-2004. Records include administrative files, programs, scripts, posters, newspaper clippings, news releases, newsletters, photographs and one video cassette.
