Dear Grandpa:

Aimee and

I am sending you five dollars for a little Christmas gift. She, her husband and the baby spent last Sunday with us and we decided that would be better than sending a gift as we have no idea

When the shocking news came and they did not tell me for a couple of weeks.

Our boy is five months old now and is a very rascally husky youngster. He doubled his birth weight at four months instead of at five as they usually do. He surely shows the Canadian blood in him for he will not sleep in the house in the day time and the weather is never too cold for him to sleep out of doors.

what you need or would like.

It will be quite a lonely Christmas for us this year with Mother.
Dad and Jess away out in Los Angeles but when we think of the lonely Christmas Cousin Annie, Aunt Minnie and yourself will have we realize that we have nothing to complain of.

I was in the hospital

Janet Louise is nine now and is simply wild over her baby brother. She loves to have me tell her about her great grandfather and all the relatives down East. I tell her about the fine summer we had at Sennycafe with you and Grandma. If it were possible I would love to bring her down there to visit you.

Dick is very busy these days doing two men's work or more but seems to enjoy it.

We hope you are well this winter and that the holiday season will bring you peace & not joy. Your loving grand daughter, Caroline Bigelow Button
