Dear Mr. Raddall:

Some time ago you granted us permission to use "Bald Eagle" in the BOOK OF CANADIAN PROSE, Volume II. As publication is now definite for this fall, we would appreciate your assurance that the permission given then still holds good. Will this apply to world distribution?

We will include the usual acknowledgment.

We are sorry to trouble you again about this, but would appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible. You will receive a copy of the book as soon as it is published.

Yours truly,

Irmgard Wieler

Toronto 5, Ontario.

Dear Miss Wieler:

Now that the postal strike is over I can reply to your letter of July 15.

With regard to the use of my short story
BALD EAGLE in BOOK OF CANADIAN PROSE, Volume 11, the permission I gave W.J.Gage Limited in 1964 remains valid, and the permission includes world distribution.

Sincerely,
