Mrs. RODNEY GILBERT

R. D. 2, MORRISTOWN, N. J.

Dear Mr. Raddall.

I have read with much pleasure your stories in the Past, and hope you have more in preparation.

Your wife may remember me as Hilda Murray, who spent almost every summer in Milton, and often visited the Harley Fords, who lived where Mrs. Ingham Freeman lives now (if indeed she is still there.)

I have heard about your interest in the early visits of the Vikings, and as my husband is also a Norse, and Nordic enthusiast, I am hoping to get him to visit Nova Scotia, particularly because I am so deeply attached to the Milton and Liverpool scene. He should visit Yarmouth, and Marblehead, and have a good talk with you about it all, if you are still there in these days when Canada is so highly mobilized.

Please remember me to your wife. I am so very out of touch with Milton. I'm not even sure you're still in the same house where I was told you were living.

I have just been writing Mrs. Dedrick on hearing of her husband's death,
and so was reminded of Milton and Miltonites.

Sincerely yours

Hilda Murray Gilbert
