

I hope I may now congratulate you upon having completed your Course to the satisfaction of your auditors, and that you have more leisure to prosecute your chemical enquiries.

We are all in tolerable health and lead a very tranquil life here. It is said the Ships will be in readiness about the beginning of March and that we may be then prepared to take our departure. As I understand you are to go in the Sackville with Captain Powell I expect to have the pleasure of seeing you before we sail. In the meantime let me beg to hear from you as soon as convenient. And believe me to be

With much regard

Dear Doctor

Most sincerely yours

P.S. With respect to the 2 Gold watches, I am not likely to want them for any future occasion, if you can dispose of them even so low as 16 or 18 Guineas, you may sell the gun &c. at the same rate. W.
