Greetings from Sydney. I enjoyed meeting you on your recent visit.
Has there been any decision about the Australian contact person for the Independent World Commission on the Oceans?
You have left with me several copies of the publication but I am not sure what I am to do with them!

Subject: Your fax addressed to Joeli Vitayaki

Dear Keith,

Your fax has been forwarded to me here in Halifax. Joeli is presently on leave.

I am afraid we have not made any headway with hearings in Australia.

In the meantime we have officially launched the Independent World Commission on the Oceans. The first Plenary session took place in Tokyo in December. There are still quite a few problems to iron out, however.

We have an Australian member, Peter Bridgewater who, I think is presently the Chairman of the International Whaling Commission. The Portuguese put him on without consulting with anybody else, That is the way they are doing things, and that is one of our problems. But I do think we probably should leave it now to Bridgewater, although I don't expect much action on the part of the Commission for the time being. In places where we have IOI operational centres, we are doing the job, and will submit a volume to the Commission this coming fall.

We'll keep you posted, and if you can help, if and when the time comes, that will be warmly appreciated.

All the very best for 1996!

Yours as ever,
