DAL vs UNITED SERVICES

Dalhousie versus United Services is the scheduled game of the Halifax City Rugby league, slated for the Studley campus tomorrow afternoon. This will be the first home game for the Tigers and, with promises of a battle royal, few if any of the 850 registered Dalhousie students should be missing from the stands (when the teams get started away on the seventy minutes fight at three o'clock.)

Legend and the Dal hand book has it that Service men took their one and only championship in the gay nineties and from the looks of their team this season it would appear that they have ambitions to repeat. In their opening game last week at Acadia they duplicated the Tigers feat of holding Acadia to a scoreless draw, but those who saw the game at Wolfville say that the Services were robbed of the victory.

The Tigers got away to a poor start when they failed to do any scoring damage to the Acadia machine while the Wanderers nosed them out by three points last Saturday. On Tuesday however the men got the feel of victory when they unleashed a scoring push to win by a 5-3 score from Mt. A. The team is now working at it's best, having improved a hundred per cent in the last two weeks, and in the opinion of several close followers of football stand a good chance of taking victory from the imposing Service fifteen.

A tribute was paid to our football representatives after Tuesdays game with the Mounties by W. J. Foley, Sport Editor of the Chronicle. Mr. Foley's comment was as follows: "The old fighting spirit that has carried the Dalhousie Tigers to many victories on the well worn gridiron was in evidence yesterday, when the local collegians made a Garrison Finish to defeat Sackville's Mounties. Dalhousie has always been represented by a fighting team. Some fifteen have been much better than others but they have always been composed of fighters. That's half the battle."

The Tigers are tackling a hard proposition in the United Services and need all the support they can get from the students to take victory. There is nothing better to encourage a tired team than cheering and plenty of it from their own supporters. So turn out tomorrow in all your numbers, gather in the South stand and do your bit. Sina Singers band will be in the stand along with a large contingent of rooters from Shirreff Hall.

The intermediate game starts at 2 o'clock while the senior tussle will get away at three. Students will be admitted to both grounds and stands with twenty-five cents and their D. A. A. C. ticket.

CITY INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

The Dalhousie intermediates got away to a good start last Saturday when they took the junior Wanderers into camp by a 8-0 score. The collegians played a fine game and outclassed the Reds throughout.

Davison accounted for the first try about the middle of the first frame when he picked up a loose ball near the ten yard line. Maxwell made it six to nil when he crossed the line in the second half. This try was converted by Davison.

The Dal scrum was working fine, especially in the second half when they used their weight to good advantage. The backfield also did good work but were guilty of several bad fumbles and misplays in the first half.

Dalhousie—Murray, Ross, Power, Thompson, Eaton, Jennings, Maxwell, Davison, McLeod, Scott, Magonet, Woolner, Mahon, Townsend and Conrad.

"THE UNFAIR SEX" AT THE GARRICK

"The Unfair Sex" which is the present offering of the Florence Glossop-Harris Company at the Garrick theatre is without a doubt one of the most laughable of comedies that has been the lot of Halifax play-goers to enjoy for many months. "The Unfair Sex" proved a seal triumph at the Savory Theatre, London, and has also caused New York to rock with laughter.

It is recommended as an even more successful "blues chaser" than "French Leave" which was so warmly received by Garrick patrons last week. Just how many misunderstandings can come from a husband and wife who are discovered in the act of kissing "platonic friends" of the opposite sex, cannot be realized without seeing "The Unfair Sex". In fact from beginning to end, it can only be described as a "scream" there being no "dead wood" in "The Unfair Sex." for each character introduced takes an important part in the carrying out of the plot to its unexpected climax—when the laugh storm ends in a gale.

The lossop-Harris Co. show their versatility by playing for next week's offering, Sidney Howard's colossal success from the Galla Theatre, New York, and St. Martin's Theatre, London, "The Silver Cord."

Dal vs Wanderers

as the result of a tussly with Timmie Hunter. Both players were at fault but the ref saw Hewat's part in the rumpus and Dal was forced to continue with but fourteen men. Near the end of the half Hunter was put out of the game when he received a kick in the head.

The front line Tigers, who showed a marked superiority over the Acadia pack in Wolfville, did not work so good on Saturday and the Red scrum had a slight edge. The Wanderers forwards proved to be adepts at dribbling and made some long gains by this method while in the scrum they seemed to get more weight into the surge.

Although they lost the wearers of the Gold and Black gave a good account of themselves. A rain soaked field slowed up both backfields but in spite of this spectators were treated to some brilliant open plays. The Wanderers were the aggressors during the larger portion of the seventy minutes of playing time but the Tigers got away on several occasions ploughing their way through the Red lines by sheer determination to make large gains, none of which however went past the Wanderers ten yard line. Dalhousie likes victory but can take defeat. The team played a fine game and with a few more work outs under their belts can take their conquerors into camp when they meet on the Studley campus next week.

Dal lined up as follows:
Full back, MacDonald; three quarters, Hewat, A. Sutherland, McLeod and Jones; halves, Fraser, Sutherland, and Wickwire; forwards, Baird, Townsend, Campbell, Wishart, Irving, Smith and McKrae.

"WILD GEESE" AT THE ORPHEUS

"Wild Geese" a picturization of the famous novel of the same name by Martha Ostenso, which won the prize of $15,500 for the best novel by an American author, has been filmed by Tiffany-Stahl Productions, and will be shown for the first time next week at the Orpheus.

Tiffany-Stahl has a splendid cast selected for the principal roles in the picture including Belle Bennett (said to be her greatest screen role) Anita Stewart, Russell Simpson, Eve Southern, Donald Keith, Jason Robards, Wesley Barry, Reta Rae, Austen Jewel, Evelyn Selbie and a host of others.

POLICE OFFICIAL TALKS ON "LADIES OF THE MOB"

Because the title of Clara Bow's latest starring production is perhaps not quite clear to the general public, Paramount executives obtained a statement from a Los Angeles police official explaining the term, "Ladies of the Mob."

"In the language of the underworld," says the official, "Ladies of the Mob" refers to the sweethearts or, perhaps, the wives of the gangsters who know what their sweethearts or husbands are doing but who usually play little or no part in their actual crime careers.

"Usually, the 'ladies of the mob' have a great deal of information about what the men are doing and in rare cases, assist in forming the plans.

"Their code, however, prevents them from 'squealing' unless double-crossed and they always stick to one man until he is sent to the penitentiary or is killed. Then their obligations end.

In "Ladies of the Mob," which will show at the Majestic theatre next week, Miss Bow has the role of the wife who attempts to keep her gangster lover straight. It is one of the heaviest roles she has had for some time.

Richard Arlen plays opposite the star in the production.

SPORT

For the first time since the inauguration of the Halifax Herald Annual ten mile road race, Dalhousie was represented by a team of well conditioned men. There is splendid track material at the university this year and those selected for the ten mile grind gave a good account of themselves.

The Gold and Black was worn in Saturday's race by J. A. Muir, regular marathoner from Pictou, J. Hussey, who like Joie Ray is jumping from his specialty, the mile run, into a longer distance, N. Rushed and D. Irving. All four were in the best of condition and reeled off the ten miles in last time.

Our thanks go to Dr. Charlie Baxter Dal graduate and a former cheer leader at the football games during his undergrad days, who started the rooting and cheering in the last ten minutes of the game on Tuesday. Under the Dr's leadership the Dal students cheered themselves hoarse and whether it was due to this or not the fact remains that the Tigers camped on the Mt. A line until they got a man across for a score.

"SHARPSHOOTERS" INVADE MOUNTAINEER TERRITORY

When there are mountain feuds to be settled Wallace Berry and Raymond Hatton should settle them. Those monarchs of merriment demonstrate themselves to be eminently qualified for this perilous occupation in "The Big Killing," their team comedy which will be shown at the Casino Theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Blundering into hidden moonshine stills, stumbling onto broken hearted lovers holding what they fear may be their last tryst, Berry and Hatton pass through one hair raising adventure after another.

Playing in brilliant fashion, with long straight drives, accurate approaching and a beautiful putt on the seventeenth green, Morris (Whacky) MacKinnon, brought further honors to the Dalhousie Law School by winning the Men's Championship at the Gorsebrook Gold Club last week. Morris played against Mr. A. R. Cardno and copped twenty-four holes out of the thirty-six. As a lawyer, Whacky is a great golfer.
