

Welcome

The Editor of the Freshman Handbook gives me the opportunity to give you a greeting, and a word of counsel. You are heartily welcome to Dalhousie University. Dalhousie University, from now on, will be in great measure what you make of it. For you it will be almost entirely what you make of it. We think you can make it even a better University than it has been. You can do that, and this is my one word of counsel, by putting first things first.

Every good fortune!

President.

Dr. Carleton Stanley,
President Dalhousie University,
Halifax, N. S.

Dear Dr. Stanley:

It is getting near the time of year when it becomes necessary for the assistant business manager of the Gazette to line up the copy for the Freshman Handbook.

I would appreciate very much some message from you to serve as the customary "Greeting" in this year's book. If it is convenient for you to send this in within the next ten days it will assist us greatly. Your message last year was about 200 words in length.

Yours very truly,

Howard C. Oxley

Dear Mr. Oxley:

Enclosed is a copy of the "Greeting" from the President, to be included in this year's copy of the Freshman
Handbook.

Yours very truly,

Secretary to the President.
