MINISTER OF NATIONAL HEALTH AND WELFARE
OTTAWA, CANADA

December 30th, 1944

Vincent C. Macdonald, Esq., K.C.,
Dean of Dalhousie Law School,
Halifax, N.S.

Dear Vince:

I saw in the Halifax Herald a swell picture of you and Lachlin Currie indicating that you were replacing him as Chairman of the Regional War Labour Board. I don't suppose that this exposes you to congratulations but it does remind me that I should have written before to express my own appreciation of the extraordinarily good series of opinions on Dominion-Provincial relations which you did in connection with the preparation for the Conference. These will be very helpful to me in the work of this Department.

With kindest regards and all good wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Arthur Meighen
