

Dear D^r

I take this opportunity of writing to you if it should be so fortunate as to reach you by a good vessel who if he comes where you are will wait on you and be happy to see you if he returns to England will take charge of any letters you may have occasion to send I have had letters from the Country the 10th this I see in the news papers that there had been a Riot at Dumfries about the oat meal they have taken it from the carts as they were going to the Ships and in palloway they have gone to the farm houses and taken from the farmers and sold it for 2^d for shone the military were called on to resist the wild power but no harm lost Mr Jardine is gone to the west Indies by the Recommendation of your friend D^r Saunders of penton Die to a Surgeon on Grenada or Antigua soon after you left England he is gone for three years at a fixed Salary at the Expiration of that time he is to be admitted a partner in the Business I hope he will prove successful as he seems to be a very Determining young man the house in London that he engaged with is very Capital Henderson and Todd the Secretary to the post office so I hope he has got a Respectable Situation I was sorry to hear that you had not an opportunity to Display any of your abilities to the Emperor of China which must be a Disappointment to you I was informed by a gentleman that you went to Bengal hopes that you in good health and that the Country agrees with you it is Reported that Lord Mordaunt is going to be Governor of the Cape of Good Hope hope my wife and Daughters gives there best Respects to you wishing you health and prosperity Frances says that you promised her a China husband I hope you will not be long before that you fulfill your promise or else she will be constrained to have an English one

Be so good as to let me hear from you and when I may expect to have the pleasure of seeing you again I see Mr Walkers lecture on the window in Corn hill the war is not over nor any account of it I read it 13^d the Dr^r Loaf other things in proportion they are deal 10/8

I am Dear D^r

Yours most Respectfully
