

Mrs Ellen Ballou

2 West 67th Street

New York City

1945

Parker's
Yemassee, South Carolina

Dec 22.

Well dear
You too, you spout me outrageously.
The handkerchiefs are beautiful & I am so pleased with them. Can you do me, for my out in the evening in my dinner jacket with fast a mono framed corner. Chastely peeping out of my pocket. It's lucky I'm such an old party for with pearls from Tammie, lingerie from you, & all manner of preparations for the toilet from Raeph I should certainly be taken for a very disreputable member of Society & probably find myself deported as an undesirable alien.

I am watching the papers for news of your success. I hope it has a final success, & I am so glad you had such a triumph in the country. Soon I shall be the only person in this country who has not heard you play - well, once, but years & years ago, at least three.

Bless you & thank you again.

Wm