Dear Sir;-

I have just finished reading your story BLIND MAC NAIR in the Post and want to tell you how much I enjoyed it. It is a great story.

Now I am going to ask a favor. Several years ago my Sister asked me to secure for her the words to the song "Young Charlotte" but so far I have been unsuccessful. As it is mentioned in your story as one of the songs sung by Blind MacNair, the thought occurred to me that you might have the words or at least tell me where I might secure them.

I will appreciate hearing from you and assure you it will make my Sister happy should we be able to secure the words of this song.

Yours very truly

T. E. Jackson
