Knee,

The Day before Yesterday I arrived here safely, and yesterday had the pleasure of writing on Mr. S. (Davis), and delivering your Letter, who received ^{me} very well, and at the same time promised me every assistance. — Among many other questions of Mr. D., was this too, if you shall give this Season Lectures, and when have Intention to go home, and whence, &c. to which all I made the proper Answers, and satisfied his Curiosity. — I am extremely obliged to you for the Recommendation to this Gentleman, and think this the greatest favour of you, as also I hope you will be kind enough to remember me again to him in your next Letters. —

Of the Catalogues some I sent to the Gentlemen at the Places I passed, and some here, and the remainder I will send to the Gent. at Chunar. — I shall be very glad, if

You will be pleased to command me at any your Service. - Eppode. -

December 23. 1798. Your Most Obedt. and Most humble Servant
Benares.

Demetrios Galanos.

P.S. I learned from Mr. Davis that Mr.
Colbroock was here, and that yesterday left this for Mirzapoor, and thence for Nainpore. But after some time he will return again here. -
