OUR DIRECTOR

Miss Archibald is one of the most accomplished theatrical directors in this province and, without a doubt, one of the most active. Employed full-time as Dramatic Advisor to the Adult Education Division of the Nova Scotia government, she is the Maritime representative for the National Theatre School. "Genni" directed "BRIGADOON" for the Society last year and we are most happy that her busy schedule has allowed her to direct "LI'L ABNER" for us this year.

OUR LEADS

EWAN CLARK, appearing in his third dramatic production of the year, plays 'Li'l Abner' with verve and imagination. A native of Halifax, 'Sudsy' has participated in 'ROMEO and JULIET' and in the Connolly Shield Competition. A senior at Dalhousie, 'Sudsy' intends further study and travel before he settles down.

CHERYL HIRSCHFELD, whom we are proud to present as our 'Daisy Mae' will be widely recognized as the present Miss Halifax. Cheryl also played the lead in last year's production of 'BRIGADOON'. A second-year Arts student, Cheryl is known for her excellent voice. She is thinking seriously of making the stage her career.

NORMAN HALL, a fourth-year Engineering student, brings a wealth of experience to the role of 'Marryin' Sam'. He is known to Halifax audiences from past performances in 'BYE BYE BIRDIE', 'GUYS and DOLLS' and 'BRIGADOON'.
