

8 August 1986

Dear Mr Raddall

We plan to publish in October 1986 THE OXFORD BOOK OF CANADIAN SHORT STORIES IN ENGLISH edited by Margaret Atwood and Robert Weaver and would like to include your story 'The Wedding Gift' from The Wedding Gift.

This book will be published as a trade hardback edition of approximately 512 pages, tentatively priced at $24.95, with an initial print run of about 5000 copies. It is expected that our offices in New York and Oxford will order small quantities of this title. We have already received permission from McClelland and Stewart for Canadian distribution rights. Would you please let us know your fee for World rights (excluding Canada).

As we are working under a very tight production schedule an immediate reply would be greatly appreciated.

Yours sincerely

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'Phyllis Wilson'.

Phyllis Wilson (Mrs)
Administrative Assistant
Editorial Division

Mr Thomas Raddall
44 Park Street
Liverpool, Nova Scotia
BOT 1KO

:pw

P/O/Box 459
BOT 1K0

14 August 1986

Mrs. Phyllis Wilson,
Oxford University Press Canada,
Don Mills, Ontario.

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

Re: THE WEDDING GIFT

For permission to include my story in THE OXFORD BOOK OF CANADIAN SHORT STORIES IN ENGLISH, as outlined in your letter of 8 August 1986, the fee is $200.00.

I also require one copy of the book for my records.

Yours truly,

Thomas H. Raddall

P70?Box 459