

Scotch Lottery

Upon an Irish Plan to commence drawing immediately in D<sup>y</sup> - 0

Consisting of Tickets or Shares to the Amount of £32,432-9 for the Benefit of the Inhabitants only. The Number of Blanks not being yet filled up. The prizes therefore are all so-confiscated
- The one depending upon the other, as shall be mentioned in an after advertisement. To be arranged by the most able Calculators in this County. The Business is to be conducted on entire new plan. Instead of the Common wheel a Large <sup>Blanc</sup> Spurre is to be used and the Prizes are to be taken from the Sweet Meat and preserved Dishes and the Blanks from the pickle pots &c. That no Confusion may arise at drawing. Three Deputies are now in London for instructions in the making Silly Boobies. Tickets and Shares are to be disposed off by the Agent in Irish Street 50 percent under the prime cost with Mr Johnston from Susan Dale and John Forgeous in St Davids then any Day Before drawing. Further particulars to be continued with an enlarged account of the ~~Matter~~ Nations and History of all Lotteries from the Oil-impish James to the pickle Lotteries and its origin proving to the meaneast understanding that this is the Completest Lottery of all Lotteries since the Days of King James the first to that of King David the fourth

Asperu Lottery office.

July 25 1810