

Cape Breton's MAGAZINE

WRECK COVE · CAPE BRETON · NOVA SCOTIA

6 November 1983

Dear Thomas H. Raddall:

Enclosed is a copy of Cape Breton's Magazine to give you an idea of the work I have been doing the past several years.

In recent issues I have been offering stories about World War One. One disappointment is that I have not found a Micmac Indian who served in that war. I do want that fact somehow detailed in the magazines.

I located your manuscript Sam Glode, Micmac Indian, in the Dalhousie University Archives. A good portion of it deals with Sam Glode's war experiences. I like the piece as well for the sense of mobility, the man displays, something we do not often think of in terms of Indians.

I have applied for and received permission from Dalhousie to print this. My understanding is that it has not been published. Please let me know if that is not the case.

I hope you enjoy the magazine. If you'd like to see more copies, let me know and I'll send them along.

Also, I hope that my including work of yours in the magazine meets with your approval.

With good wishes,

Ronald Caplan
Editor

BOT 1KO

November 10/83

Mr. Ronald Caplan,
Wreck Cove, .
Cape Breton N.S.

Dear Mr. Caplan:

Thank you for the copy of your interesting magazine.

The reminiscences of my old friend
Sam Glode have never been published. If you have Dalhousie's permission to print them, go ahead.

I need not point out that some of Sam's private adventures were never meant for the public eye. He was indeed a remarkable man in any society, and especially as an Indian.

Sincerely,

Thomas H. Raddall

Cape Breton's MAGAZINE

WRECK COVE • CAPE BRETON • NOVA SCOTIA
B0C 1H0

26 September 1988

Dear Mr. Raddall:

Finally, enclosed are copies of THE CAPE BRETON GIANT.

I hope you'll enjoy this new production.

I deeply appreciate your having been part of it.

I'll do my best to let the world know that this book is once again available, and is not to be forgotten.

With all good wishes,

Ronald Caplan