My Dear Sister

Just a few lines to let you know that I am well and getting along very well. Mrs. Lloyd a few lines couple of days ago and sent you a card I haven't very much to tell you now like when I was in England I could tell you about every thing there but just a few lines is better than nothing from me I know that you will be satisfied I shall be expecting to hear from you all after and send long letters <sup>writing</sup> ~~telling~~ me every thing about home and its surroundings I will not be able to write you very often yet but will do the best that I can I like it in France think it much better than England warmer and better every way We are having lovely weather

Here just now now sister I really can't think of any thing that I could tell you hope that you are all well at home and enjoying your selves. I must be here in Calif. about this time here and cool and so you are getting you out a few coats well to tell the truth I am a poor Judge, really few coats are very nice and I am sure would be quite stylish. I would say Judge for your self. I know that you are tasty and I am sure that you would get some thing nice. Hope that you are doing well at school and I should say making good progress. I failed to receive your parcel but will soon I am sure will have to do for this time give my love to all and be sure write often every body from me loving Brother Weldon, etc
