Dear Mr. Raddall,

I am much interested in a very old cemetery in Port Mouton, which is I understand, one of the oldest in Nova Scotia.

This historic site has been sadly neglected, simply because residents in Port Mouton do not realize its value.

It has occurred to me, that by interesting the school children in the history of this cemetery, I might awaken a community interest. First, however I should like to know more about it myself.

Could you give me any idea where I may find such information? If so I should be very grateful. Very truly yours
