Dear Ms. Mann Borgese,

I am writing to say that we need your box on the United Nations Conference rapidly. We haven't cut your article drastically, but to complete the paper, we do need an up-dating on what happened at the Conference. Could you send us the box before the beginning of November? This is the latest deadline, since the manuscripts should have been sent to the printer by the end of this week.

Many thanks for your cooperation,

Yours sincerely,

I. R. Hourwich

Dear Ms. Mann Borgese,

This is just a short note to say that the next issue of EUROPEAN BUSINESS will be going to press soon. We'll be using your text and would like to have the box as quickly as possible. Could you send it--and the photos--at your earliest convenience?

Many thanks,

Yours sincerely,

I. R. Hourwich

Dear Mrs. Mann Borgese,

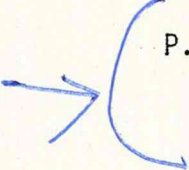

I am writing on behalf of Henry Dougier, who is also the editor of EUROPEAN BUSINESS. We should like to publish your article on the oceans in our forthcoming issue of the review. The only problem is that the article is a bit too long.

Do you think you could shorten the piece from its present 31 pages to about 22 pages? Mr. Dougier would also like to have a small, two-page "box" on the conference in Caracas, describing briefly what was accomplished. Do you think you could do this and send it to us before the end of July?

Hoping to hear from you soon,

Yours sincerely,

I. R. Hourwich

 P.S. We usually print a couple of photos of the author alongside each article. Could you please send us several black and white candid snapshots (taken on vacation, at home, at work, etc.)? Thank you.

Dear Jean - Hope things were not too dreadful and you are o.k.

We miss you! (So does Mr. Singh ...)

I have answered this guy, proposing end-of-August deadline.
Could you send him some pictures?
Love
Elizabeth
