Dear Mr Raddall:-

So often I have planned to write and tell you how much I have enjoyed your books, but not until I broke my arm a few weeks ago and a friend sent me your book "Roger Sudden" and it was tops, so you see I'm starting the new year right-

I'm Welsh decent, my father was shipwrecked when he was eighteen yrs. old on the Maydalen Islds., and I was born and brought up there, and have always wanted to write stories, and would rather read than eat-

I have been fortunate enough to spend a lovely summer in England and enjoy English books so much more than before.

I enjoyed your story about the Halifax Explosion, I was there just graduated as a nurse and it was my first work.

Many good wishes for a Happy New Year and a lot more good stories

Sincerely
Nora R. Pries, Kentville N.S.
