Mr. Thomas H. Radall
Liverpool, N.S.

Dear Sir:

Some friends of mine who know you have suggested that I meet you sometime. With what I have read of your literary ability, I am acting on that idea, or desiring to.

If at any time you are passing through Hubbards in your car on your way to Halifax, I should be pleased to have you drop in.

I live in the house between Cunningham's Store and the Sea Training School. which was once the Gainsborough Hotel.

There might be something to our mutual advantage which we could find out after meeting. I am 85 and not able to get around as I once could. Should be pleased to have a line from you

Yours sincerely

P.S. Mr. J.C. Madden of The Halifax Chronicle, Bridgewater, knows me.
