Dear Tom.

I'm sure you must have received countless compliments on your literary works but here is another expressed in the enclosed letter from my young daughter Susan, who is at Edgahill. I thought you might be amused.

I am a little late but I would like to add my congratulations on your success and say how much I have enjoyed your entertaining and fascinating books.
How is your tennis?
I haven't played since leaving Liverpool in 1934.

Want bother returning
Susan's letter

Kind regards

Dear Mummy + Daddy,

Well the music exam is all over. I can hardly believe it.

The music examiner was just sweet and so understanding. He was about 80 or 75 and had white hair.

When I went in there I was shaking like a leaf. But when I think I will frame it.

Well only 20 more days and I will see you both again. I do hope you can make it up here for the closing because I am in the play now. I am "King Alfred the Great".

I expect to get a letter from George on Monday night I do hope he writes me.

I can't wait to see his new bicycle and I hope he will let me ride it.

Mummy may I buy a piece

I came out I wasn't so scared. I do hope I pass.

Well last night I had a great thrill, I saw a real live author "Thomas Randall" who wrote "Rodge Suddins" and "His Majesties Yankees". He gave a talk to K.C.S. & E. de Hill at K.C.S.

He told us how he became an author and all that. He was very interesting.

It was the first author I have ever seen. Maria W. is going to get me his autograph and of music called "Greig's Concerto" in A or A^b. It is quite a hard piece but Miss Cameron says I can do it if I try. She is sending away for it.

Are ~~(I do)~~ my summer dresses finished yet? If they are would you please send them to me. And Mum, could you with the $5.00 Mamma gave me get me a pair of hunchies and send them to me. size 6 or 6 1/2 or 7.

I am just longing for a pair.

Well give my love to everybody and lots of love to you both from

P.S. Pardon my writing.

Susan
