

H. W. Langster, M.A., LL.B. and Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, etc.

Capt. <sup>Lobby Jones</sup> Owen Jones M.P. D.C.M. a soldier of fortune now bearing the name & style of Mr. Owen Jones M.P. L.L.B. Barrister etc of Windsor, N.Y. June 20th 1921 and I might have been in France thus

169014 Sgt

J
3

or in Russia
thus: O. D. D. D. D. D.
K. A. M. M. M. M.

Dear Dr. MacMechan,

You have understood all right and your letter has helped me see a bit of the "orange flood" instead of the mud. You remember the story I once told you about Gen Alderlan and the passport drivet at Westport well. them's my sentiments too and I say most heartily "Thanks Cap., a little encouragement helps a guy these days." The transition from Russell's "Pocketful of Sixpence" to "Tremor on the Criminal Code" is a severe mental shock and I find that John Doe is an uninteresting person as the acceptor of a ~~note~~ <sup>bill</sup> drawn by Richard Roe etc. Peter Flower the deceased promises on a note to Margat Leman it much more to my liking. I have just closed a volume bearing the title "Paley on Summary Convictions" & the cover of the cover, shutting, brought me up with a start to the realization that I was studying law and not deciphering a Code Message from Prime Minister Repetoff calling on us to use our influence to get the 7 Czechs. Sleight to send some aroused Princes to Lomsk to view the advance of the Pol.

Cherik vanquished; and that Kotelak was a syphilitic madman. This morning in the Probate Court while A. was telling B's widow that she was a dishonest strumpet for not paying B's debts I was wondering how Corbett was getting on in Poland; was Princep still in Japan; and have Forbes & his charming Olga reached India yet. Yes today as I took a warrant to the Sheriff for the arrest of some unfortunate savage I was wondering how it was I managed to wriggle across that blistering strip at Ypres & deliver a warrant to our gunners to arrest a German assault.

I think you've understood! That's the way it goes: hatchford's in Australia now; Ludmela's in Iceland & O'Connell when last I heard of him was passing through Harbin on his way to Hien-Tsin. Can you wonder that I don't care a damn at times whether or not Judy tumbled in it's orange flood when I know the Angora is still thundering out of Lake Baikal, & possibly the Swans are still floating in the most arctic Ypres. Once again I send Cap. & now for "Edgers" on Pleading. Most sincerely, C. W. C.