Mr. Thomas H. Raddall,
Liverpool, N.S.

Dear Mr. Raddall:

Dr. Henry F. Munro has recently read thoroughly and with much delight your new book on Halifax. He wishes me to extend to you his congratulations on this fine achievement and to express his pleasure upon finding such an excellent treatment of the subject. He has found the book admirable and has commented that you have done something for Halifax that has scarcely been done for any other Canadian city and in such a way that it will not need to be done again.

Very truly yours,

R. A. Simpson

R. A. Simpson,
Secretary.
