

This shack was once home for one of our leper families. Here they lived a meager day to day existence....but now they have through hard work built new homes, churches and schools.

They no longer have to beg to live.

Each of our families is in the true sense in business and can now provide a decent living for themselves and their children.