Mr. Thos. Raddall,
Liverpool, N.S.

Dear Mr. Raddall:

It doesn't seem possible that you would remember me after such a long time, but I am hoping that you will, and that you will allow me to ask a favor.

I have just got my copy of Roger Sudden, and I would be very pleased indeed if you would autograph it for me.

I haven't had a chance to read it yet, but I am sure that its pages hold a lot of enjoyment for me.

I have a book on dogs being published by Macmillans in a short time, and my fiction is gradually getting to the point where it sees the light of day now and then. At the present time I'm starting a novel of the early days around St Margarets Bay.

I do hope that I am not asking too much in sending you my copy. I am going to Upper Canada in a weeks time for the winter, and if you could possibly get it back to me before I go I would appreciate it greatly.

Thanking you in anticipation, I am,

Sincerely,

Harry Peake

Nova Scotia has won my heart. I couldn't stay away if I wanted to, and I still have that idea for a writers' colony after the war in the back of my head.
