Doctor of Laws (honoris causa)

Gordon M. Nixon

A colleague says Gordon Nixon gains respect as a leader because of his belief that "you are only as good as the people you work with, not through the authority of your position." As the President and Chief Executive Officer of RBC Financial Group - the Royal Bank of Canada and its subsidiaries - Gordon M. Nixon is one of the most accomplished, and youngest, bank CEOs in Canadian history. Since assuming the role in 2001, he has also become one of our country's most respected corporate leaders.

Small and medium-sized companies form the backbone of many Canadian communities. While such companies rarely make headlines like their large multinational cousins, their impact – in the community and the region – can be almost as powerful. Such is the case with the ABCO Group of Companies, an innovative engineering firm that became a solid part of the Nova Scotia economy under the skillful leadership of Andrew Eisenhauer.

Dalhousie University Coat of Arms

The Dalhousie University Coat of Arms, which you see hanging at the back of the stage, is based on the heraldic achievement (commonly called "Coat of Arms") of the Ramsay family of Scotland. The Rt. Hon. George Ramsay, Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia, founded the University in 1818. Initially the Ramsay family coat of arms was used to identify Dalhousie. But over time, it has evolved, as have most heraldic devices through marriage or political alliances.

The seal used by the University differs from that of the Ramsay family version in three ways.

First, through marriage one of the supporters on the Ramsay achievement has now changed to include a greyhound on the right.

Secondly, the original Ramsay supporters were griffins (half lion, half dragon). Dalhousie has dragons.

The third change occurred in 1950 when the Board of Governors changed the colour of the shield from white (silver) to gold, to reflect the University's colours of black and gold.

Since 1987 the university has used the eagle and shield as the basis for its logo.

Dalhousie University Mace

The Dalhousie University Mace is carried into the auditorium by the University Beadle, Åsa Kachan, University Registrar, who leads the procession. The Mace was first carried in an academic procession in May 1950 and once placed on stage, begins Convocation.

The Mace was designed by R. L. de C. H. Saunders, a Professor of Anatomy, and carved by A. H. MacMillan of Halifax. It is made of oak, enriched with silver and enamel, and measures 1.4 metres in length.

The lower end of the mace is adorned with silver fish in recognition of one of our most important natural resources. Above this is a circular scene of a sea nymph calling across the waves towards the setting sun in representation of the impulse that led navigators to our shores. The roots put down by early settlers and the tall trees that first met their gaze are reflected in a pattern extending the entire length of the shaft.

The head of the mace bears a maple leaf. Set above the leaf is a carved circle of mayflowers, which symbolizes both the province and the flowering of a new civilization in the province which led to the establishment of the University. Four robed medieval scholars facing the main compass points represent the university faculties of 1950: Arts and Science, Dentistry, Law and Medicine. Each figure bears a silver enameled shield with either the arms of the University or the Province of Nova Scotia. Alternating with these figures are the rose, thistle, fleur-de-lys and shamrock, depicting the home countries of the first European immigrants to the province.

The top of the mace head bears a five-rayed Scottish earl's coronet in recognition of the University's founder, the ninth Earl of Dalhousie. This part of the mace incorporates oak that came from the Earl's estate and was presented to Dalhousie University. Gracing the cap of the coronet, set above all, is a silver Celtic cross surrounded by the University motto "Ora et Labora" (pray and work). This cross was chosen as befitting a non-denominational institution with Scottish heritage.
