The Honourable Vincent C. MacDonald,
Supreme Court of Nova Scotia,
Halifax, N. S.

Dear Vincent:

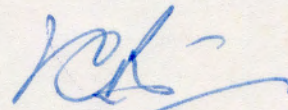

I have just received a copy of your lectures delivered last March at Osgoode Hall. I have been so busy the last few days that I have been able to no more than peruse them hurriedly but they seem to have covered the work of the court very thoroughly and I will review them in detail at the first opportunity.

You were all too generous in your references to the departed Justice but nevertheless I appreciate the reference and thank you for it.

The gratification, however, in receiving word from you is in the evidence that it gives that you are in better health than when I inquired about you last October. I was sorry not to have been able to see you then and I hope an opportunity will soon recur when that can be realized.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

I. C. Rand,
Dean
