Dear Mr. Dempsey:

This is a belated letter of thanks for your letter of October 29th. I tried to get in touch with you both in London and New York, but missed you all the way around.

About my future plans, you might have heard fhot Dodd, Mead is about to publish an anthology of our work in the oceans called "Pacem In Maribus." I have written an extensive introduction to this volume, an appendix and various other items. I am not sure whether Dodd, Mead has already made arrangements for British publication. If not, this might be of interest to you.

Otherwise, I am busy with a book for Holt, Rhinehart & Winston, also on international organization, entitled "The World Communities." The manuscript should be completed by this summer. After that there will be another volume of short stories.

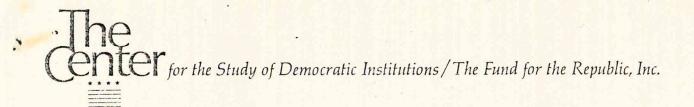

Whatever happened to Timothy O'Keeffe? If you see him, send him my love.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Elisabeth Mann Borgese
