Dear Sir

It is with some Concern I this Evening (after 10^o clock) received the inclosed Letter from Mr. Matwin, — which I submit to your perusal

It will be natural to call upon the Young Man for an Explanation — after w^{ch} I shall be glad to see you

To-morrow, being Sunday, I dine abroad & know not what time I may be at home in the Evening. If on Monday morning you can breakfast here we can determine what answer to make — and at sametime concert about going to Crumlin Meantime I remain Your Sincerely — about 11^o clock — Anthony Ferguson
