Nov 7/17.

Little Gert Mine;

Received your letter of the 1st of Oct. O.K. yesterday afternoon & now I'll get busy & start on an answer.

Considering the fact that you were answering a letter which you hadn't received I think you did pretty well, you dear.

Wish I could pass an opinion on that new hat of yours. Still, I'm afraid I wouldn't be very much interested in the hat if I did have the chance just now. I'd spend all the time passing my opinion on the Little Gert who was wearing it provided she was you of course Anyhow I know if it suits you it would suit me & as for that brown suit, well I was always stuck on it.

Pauline's father sure is St. int he. Typical Yankee though So Ruby would like to see you with six of your own hay! Afraid I'd be inclined to break up housekeeping if it ever came to that too Pat. No, two is absolutely the limit & that's bad enough. What do you think Darling?

Yes, I heard Ralph Connor speak once in St Pauls.
 Liked him fine too.

Glad to hear that "Hudson's" or at least some of his folks are still in the land of the living. He sure made some fun for us that day on Mount Miller didn't he. Guess it is pretty much as you say though Sweetheart. It didn't take much to amuse us those days. Would it be the same now do you think I think YES.

He always managed to keep from being bored to death at the Academy alright but for my part I don't think the players can take the wait.
Remember how far various reasons we used to like to get those two seats at the side?

Don't you ever worry about not being able to take a part in the war sea. One out of the family (yours & mine I mean) is quite sufficient anyhow it is the fact that a chap has someone to fight for that keeps him going through all his troubles over here.

How many thousands of gibs can not even say that they have been true to their soldier boys over here. Don't you think you are doing a much bigger thing for the cause than gibs of that kind? Just you think it over a bit in that light now & tell me the answer.

I forgot to tell you that I received a letter from your cousin Susie I guess from the tone of her letter I neednt have been afraid of offending her. Her letter was dated Aug 31 & has been all over England & France. I must get my answer as soon as possible. I'll enclose her letter with this & I bet you'll have a laugh. She sure must be great sport Wouldn't we have great fun if you & I could meet in some time?

There is very little news to tell you from around here. We have had quite a bit of rain today & of course the mood is much worse. Apart from that things are about as usual. Was on duty all day today but was off for 24 hours.

It is bed time again now Darling so guess I'll turn in. The other boys have gone to sleep long ago.

Give my love to all at home & tell your father that I hope he will see well on for as many more years yet. I didn't know that was his birthday till you letter came.

Bye Bye till the next,
Darling

With all my love.
