Dear Tom,

No doubt you will be surprised to receive a letter from me, but I have just finished reading your book "His Majesty's Yankees" and thought I should like to congratulate you. To think that your essay-writing at school should have developed into this, is quite wonderful to me! I feel very proud to think that at one time you and I were very good friends. There is a teacher here from Liverpool - a Miss Dodge. Perhaps you

P.S. - I am sending this to your business address, as I do not know your personal address. I hope you do not mind.

knew her as she says she knows you. I am teaching here, too.

I hear you are quite happily married. I am very glad. My marriage did not turn out so well. I divorced my husband over a year ago.

My seventeen-year-old daughter is with me here. My sixteen-year-old son is still with my mother in Halifax.

I do wish you could find time to drop me a line and tell me about yourself and family.

Again I wish to offer
my congratulations.

Sincerely yours,

Eva (Knodell) Allen.
