Dear Mr. Raddall:- I have read all of your books, that I can lay my hands on with great interest and appreciation. - So I was delighted to see your name in the recent "Honours List" years ago on Clarence Webster of Shediac

Told me, that your books were not only "good reading," but as historically accurate, as was possible, for one who wrote novels, historical romances and those serious accounts of persons and events -

My best wishes

Sincerely,

Norman MacKenzie

Dear Mr. Raddehl: - This is to thank you for the generous inscription in your latest book, "A Memoir". In reading the first two chapters I note that your father was killed in the battle of Amiens, Aug 8-13-1918.
As I was engaged in that battle, I felt you would be interested in my memories of it. So I am enclosing a Xeroxed copy of my experiences.
