Dear Cousin?

Seeing your photo last week in the Toronto paper, saying you were publishing another book, made me feel I ought to contact you whilst staying with our daughter Mrs Joan Cooper at the above address.

Have heard your Aunt Jessie speak of you, she is my first cousin, my mother was Natilda Taddall, and I was christened Thomas Taddall, so we have something in common.

We are returning to England on Nov 4th by the "Empress of ^{Britain} Scotland", with financial restrictions, it will not be possible to look you up, but send our warmest greetings and every success to your new book.

sincerely yours

T. R. Kittow.
