Dear Mr. Raddall,

I was delighted to see in The Globe Magazine that you have a new book out about "Grey Owl."

As I have always enjoyed your books, I am very anxious to read it, but would love to have a copy, autographed by you. Would you be so kind.?

The Atlantic Advocate have "Rick's Chicks" again and are considering publishing it. Surely they wouldn't disappoint me again !

I have your last letter stuck on the bathroom wall with my few acceptances, offset by a large number of rejection slips. This all tends to make my small uninteresting bathroom more of a reading room than it is functional.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I am

Yours sincerely

Maya Wilford
