My dear Sir Lyman:

My

belated but warm congratulations upon your 90th birthday.

At an early stage familiarity with your decisions in my capacity as a Professor ^{of law} and particularly as a student of Constitutional law engendered in me a profound admiration for your judicial learning and statesmanship which has been refreshed and intensified by my labors in recent years

as a young and humble
Judge.

May your eventide
be one of ~~your~~ interior happiness
and quiet satisfaction
in the great work which God has enabled you to do.

Sincerely

Sir Symon Duff
Ottawa.
