

Alex. Copland

27 Sept 1790

Dunfermline Septemr
27th 1790

Sir

Madam

I present in account of your Nephew William Jardine. I took him into my House about 6 years ago & have maintained him in a proper manner ever since except his Clothes which his Father & Mother settled a little in & have been at every other Expence, It is true his School & Education has mostly been given him on your Account & in one or two instances at my Desire gratis.

He has got a compleat Education as a Surgeon & Apothecary & had every opportunity

Mr
Mr James Dundas
Laird of Green & Portman Alec Copland Esq

given him by me to improve himself that any other Apprentice ever received. He is a good Linguist, knows more of both Latin & Spanish than most young Men who follow our Profession. Has gone sufficiently far in Arithmetick & Mathematicks for the <sup>complete</sup> prosecution of his Studies in the medical Line; writes pretty ~~well~~ good hand & I have lately given him a little dancing.
In short he is now set for either going to prosecute his Study farther at some University to be preferred on in taking the Charge of a Ship's Crew or in some other mode of contributing to his own Support & Advancement in the world. He is now come to that Time of Life that something ought to be done for him & He appears exceedingly <sup>desirous</sup> that something of that that Kind should be done immediately.

When first took Charge of him I was told by Mr. Wait & others that as soon as you had it in your power you intended to assist in getting him forward in the world, this induced me to give him a better Education & be at more Expence about him than other-ways would have been. From some Circumstances at present it happens that I have not so much occasion for him this winter as formerly not from any fault of his for no young Man ever had gave me more constant Satisfaction than for he expects that you will as soon as convenient let me know your Opinion as to this matter & how far it is in what Manner you now intend to further his Advancement. In the mean Time I remain Your most obedient Servant
Alex. Copland.

P.S. I don't hear from you yet Days I will spare will send me word, as letters may be sent