Dear Elizabeth,

I hope this letter finds you well, and not too exhausted after your Australian tour.

When we met, I omitted to ask you about two matters which Hiran Jayewardene raised with me. First, do you have any plans to change the location of IOI's headquarters at this time? If so, we would wish you to consider Sri Lanka as a possibility, and indicate what basic contribution would be expected from the host State. Second, would you have any objection to Hiran's institution NARA publishing my paper on the Indian Ocean in its journal? It would be acknowledged, of course, that the paper had be presented at Pacem in Maribus XIII.

I have just received your letter of 20 May 1984 announcing a tentative programme for Pacem in Maribus XIV in Moscow 15-25 May 1985. I hope that, as a member of the Planning Council from a developing country, the costs of my trip will be met. I would like my wife to accompany me (your letter says "spouses are welcome"!) and while requesting a place for her, would like to ask what the approximate dollar cost of her travel and stay is likely to be.

With my best regards and every good wish,

I am,

Yours sincerely,
