

PHOTO BY
NOVA SCOTIA BUREAU
OF INFORMATION

Before restoration. Wooden bust at left is that of Capt. Samuel Kempton, of Milton, for many years skipper of a packet schooner on the route Halifax - L'pool - Boston. It was carved when he was a boy, by Crouse, the wood-carver of Milton in the 1850's and 1860's. He carved many a figure-head and bow device for newly built L'pool ships.