Mr. Thomas H. Raddall,
c/o TODAYS WOMAN
1501 Broadway
New York City.

Dear Mr. Raddall:-

I am writing you at the suggestion of Miss Geraldine Rhoads, editor of TODAYS WOMAN.

We are anxious to secure the Swedish reprint rights to your short-story THE LOVE MOON, which will appear in the forthcoming issue, May, of TODAYS WOMAN. Our standard terms for these rights are $ 15.00. Please let me hear from you by return mail so that our editorial office in Stockholm can go ahead with the translation as soon as copy has been received by them.

Sincerely yours,

Margit Seaberg

Miss Margit Seaberg,
Albert Bonnier Publishing House,
665 Lexington Avenue,
New York, U.S.A.

Dear Miss Seaberg,

I should have answered your letter of April 10th before this, but I am tremendously busy with another novel, promised to my publishers by May 15th, and my correspondence has been neglected.

I accept your offer of $15.00 for the Swedish reprint rights of my short story THE LOVE MOON.

Please let me have a copy of the Swedish magazine in which it appears.

Sincerely,

ALBERT BONNIER PUBLISHING HOUSE

Dear Mr. R_addall:-

Forgive me for not sending you this check sooner, but my time has been so highly taxed that this is the first opportunity. Here it is at last, $ 15.00, for the Swedish translation rights to your short story THE LOVE MOON, and thank you for letting us have it.

Sincerely yours,

Margit Seaberg
