My Dear Grandmother;

as it will soon be your Birthday I thought I would write and let you know we are thinking of you.

How are you and Grandpa feeling now? we are all well are you having nice weather there? It has been quite cold here for a few days but is warmer now.

I suppose you have heard that Grace Blenkhorn is married she was married to Walter Mackenzie on the 26th of November. Owen and I went to the wedding. they went to Calgary on their wedding trip. Mr Blenkhorn has built a nice new house

Jene was back from her school a week ago to spend the weekend at home.

I am going into Trochu to-morrow to the hospital to get some experience nursing mother is going to write too so I will close now, with lots of love, your loving Granddaughter

St Mary's Hospital, Trochu
Jan. 25 1925

My Dear Grandfather,-

Please accept my sincere sympathy. I wish I could be with you to comfort you. I was very very sorry to hear of dear Grandma's death, though I suppose we should not wish her back for she is now enjoying her well earned reward, for I am sure she is happy now. I have not seen Mother or Daddy since the telegram came. I am staying at St Mary's Hospital in Trochu training for a Nurse.

I like the hospital and work very much, the Sisters here are doing a great work.

I joined the Catholic church a few years ago. And Oh! Grandpa it is really a very beautiful religion. I only wish more people understood it.

So many people have such a wrong idea of the Catholic church, and those who understand this religion get so much hope and comfort from it.

I was talking to mother over the phone the other day and she said they are very anxious to hear from you.

We are all quite well at present I will close now with lots of love your loving Granddaughter
