

Just Imported

In the snow Lively, from London, and now opening for sale,

by ROBERTSON & RIGBY

at their store on Milby's Wharf, corner of St. Andrew's Lane in Dock Street, a very general, and they flatter themselves a fine assortment of which they are determined to dispose of on the most moderate terms, for Cash, Bills of Exchange, Fish or Lumber.

EUROPEAN GOODS

They have also for sale, on the same terms,

Hyson, Singlo and Bohea teas; loaf and Muscovado sugars; Molasses; Jamaica spirits; Madeira, Sherry and Port Wines; Gloucester and Cheshire Cheese; all sorts of Spices; Swedish Iron; German steel; Powder and Shot, etc.

SULLIVAN & MILLS

Have received by the several vessels lately arrived from London, a Variety of

G O O D S

Which they will sell, Wholesale or Retail, very low, for Cash, Bills of Exchange, Fish, Furs or Lumber, at their STORE, corner of King and Water streets, viz:

- |                                   |  |
|-----------------------------------|--|
| Hyson and Bohea teas              | Pocket books   |
| Loaf Sugar                        | Asses skin memorandum books                                    |
| Porter in hogsheads               | Pewter ink-stands  |
| Vinegar in 40-gallon casks.       | Baily's Dictionary   |
| Pepper                            | Entick's pocket do.  |
| Nutmegs                           | Psalters and spelling books                                    |
| Cloves                            | Morocco leather  |
| Cinnamon                          | Very neat London made Boots                                    |
| Saltpetre                         | Strong shoes   |
| Starch                            | Round and cocked hats  |
| Hair powder                       | Hat trimmings  |
| Copper scales and weights         | Cockade ribbon   |
| Brass cocks                       | Velvet and leather stocks                                      |
| Carpenters and joiners tools      | Low priced Irish linen   |
| Nails of all sizes                | Sailors great coats, jackets, trowsers and shirts,             |
| Locks, brass or iron              | very cheap, by the package or dozen                            |
| Hinges of all sorts               |  |
| Latches and bolts                 |  |
| Pad-locks                         | ALSO   |
| Knives and forks                  | Red $$$ Port $$$$ and white wines |
| Pen-knives and scissors           | Jamaica spirits and rum by the hogshead or                     |
| Silk, morocco and black           | smaller quantity.  |
| leather swordbelts.               | Brown sugar  |
| Window-glass of different sizes.  | Coffee   |
| Painters oil and colours of       | Rose butter  |
| all sorts.                        | Mould and dipped candles.                                      |
| Earthen and glass ware in crates. | Tar and turpentine   |
| Cartridge and wrapping | Writing paper  |
| Quills                            | Cartridge and wrapping ditto.                                  |
| Slates and pencils                | Wax and wafers   |
|                                   | Music paper  |

With many other articles.

W. WILLIAMS

Begs leave to inform the Public that he has just returned from London, in the ship Port Roseway Packet, and has brought with him a considerable quantity of ENGLISH GOODS, which he is determined to sell (wholesale only) on the most reasonable terms; amongst which are:

- A large assortment of broad cloths of different prices.
  - Black and coloured silk handkerchiefs
  - Gauzes and ribbons, hosiery and threads, men and boys' hats, men's shoes and boots London-made; window glass of the best quality, 8 by 10 and 11 by 10.
- N.B. The goods to be seen at Mr. G. White's house in George Street.

TO BE SOLD, and possession of the premises given eight days after the purchase: The large commodious and elegant DWELLING HOUSE (and LOT of GROUND, being 60 feet by 120 feet) situate in Water Street, near the corner of King Street, in Shelburne, at present occupied by John Miller Esq., Deputy Collector.

The house being two stories and a half high, with four rooms on a floor, and a large garrat, wherein six convenient bedrooms may be finished; a stone wall cellar under the whole house, perfectly dry, and safe for any kind of goods; with a convenient kitchen in the yard, being 16 by 21 feet, having an excellent chimney, oven, and other necessary fixtures, together with a neat wash-house and other out-buildings.

ALSO

A large, strong and very convenient STORE, adjoining to the aforesaid dwelling house (and also fronting on Water Street) being seventeen feet wide and thirty eight feet deep, with an excellent stone wall cellar; the floors laid with Albany plank; and a neat room partitioned off for a counting-house.

The advantageous situation of the premises, in the most central part of this flourishing settlement, renders it very convenient for a merchant or any public business. For further particulars apply to Mr. George Deblois, junior, in Halifax; Mr. Samuel Burling in Shelburne; or to the Printer hereof.

Just imported and to be sold by REILLY and BRAINE
at Thomas Braine's, in Charlotte-lane.

- Choice old London particular Madeira wine, in pipes.
- Ditto Teneriffe wine of particular quality, 14 years old, and very little inferior to Madeira, in pipes.
- Common Teneriffe wine, sweet flavoured and high coloured, in pipes, half-pipes and quarter-casks.
- Spanish brandy in pipes.
- Lisbon wine in quarter-casks.
- High proof Jamaica spirits, in puncheons.
- Ditto Grenada rum in puncheons.
- 20 penny nails in boxes.
- Hard soap in ditto.
- Milled caps.
- White and check shirts.
- Rugs, and a great variety of beautiful paper hangings.

All of which they will sell on very low terms for CASH, by the wholesale only.

TENCH and TAYLOR
AND

ANDREW BRUCE and Co.

Having entered into Partnership.

Acquaint their friends and the public, that the business of AUCTIONEERS AND INSURANCE BROKERS

will in future be carried on at their office, the lower end of John Street, under the firm of

Tench, Taylor, Bruce and Co.

They likewise intend carrying on the Ship-Chandlery business

Having laid in an assortment for the purpose:- Have also a few DRY GOODS, which they will sell very reasonable, with some fresh superfine PHILADELPHIA FLOUR.

JAMES ASBY
WATCHMAKER

from LONDON,

Takes this method to acquaint his friends and the public in general, that he now carries on his business at the house of Mr. Thomas Courtney, South end of Water Street; where he has to dispose of, a few warranted WATCHES, etc.

N.B. Ship and pocket compasses repaired.

To be sold

by BELL and COMPANY

The upper end of Parr's Division.

The following articles, at the following prices, viz;

Boots of the best materials	$$$$$	1	15
A common strong sort		1	10
Men's strong shoes		7	6
Women's leather shoes, lined and bound		7	6
Good ditto, unbound		6
Common ditto		5

Having engaged a number of the best hands in the different branches, hopes to meet with encouragement; and his long acquaintance with the leather branch will, he flatters himself, recommend him. All orders left with Mr. Henry Guest, at his store in Water Street, will be attended to, as a person will call every morning to receive them.

McLEAN and BOGLE
KING STREET

Have just received in the last vessels from England via Halifax
An Addition to their former general assortment, viz:

An elegant assortment of Jewellery and Hardware, and a few pieces fashionable colours SUPERFINE CLOTH, which they will dispose of upon moderate terms, for Cash, Bills of Exchange, Fish or Lumber.

The Subscriber begs leave to inform the Public, and his friends in particular, that he has opened a STORE two doors south of John Street, in Water Street, and near the head of Charlotte Lane-- where he has a very neat assortment of ENGLISH and other GOODS, consisting of Superfine cloths of the most fashionable colours, Cassimeres of the neatest patterns, Fine velvets, corduroys and Cantons; fine white Plush and dove-coloured ditto; fancy velvets; excellent Florentine and black Sattin; Prunelloes; Princess stuff; fine moreens of different colours; Tammies; Durants; best Rattinets and shalloons; Scotch plaid and coatings; neat waistcoat patterns, with fringe; Baizes of different colours; Bandano and Barcelona handkerchiefs; fine bordered pocket, and blue and ~~$$$$$$$$~~ white ditto; Men's ribbed and plain fine white silk hose; fancy marbled ditto; ribbed and plain worsted ditto; Russia sheeting; brown ditto; scarlet, crimson, yellow and white flannels; an assortment of metal and twist buttons; taylors trimmings of all sorts; sewing silks; twists; threads; buckrams; glazed linens and silk dusoy of various colours; fine chintz patterns; Calicoes; printed linens; fine India Dimity; corded ditto; Persian ditto; fine jeans; fancy silk waistcoat patterns; black 1-2 ell and square modes; men's fine patent worsted gloves; men and women's jean ditto; doe and beaver ditto; white kidd ditto; a small asortment of ribbons; white tapes and stay laces; London quality shoe binding; India nankeens; fine white ditto; table cloths; Irish ticking; childrens Morocco and black leather shoes; men's beaver hats, etc. etc.

Ladies RIDING HABITS made in the ~~newest~~ newest fashion, and gentlemen furnished as usual, by the public's most humble servant,
PATRICK WALL.

---

PUBLIC AUCTION

This day at twelve o'clock on Messrs. Davis Son & Company's wharf, will be sold
A quantity of Spermaceti and other OIL
A quantity of WHALEBONE and
About four tons of IRON HOOPS.

Also

The Brigantine TAMERLANE
Burthen 140 tons or thereabouts, with all her tackle and apparel, whaling stores and whale boats. Inventory to be seen by applying to Capt. Parker, at the store of B. Davis, Son and Co. or GAY and LOWE.

---

The Subscriber being appointed Clerk of the Market for this town and county, hereby gives notice that he has provided, agreeable to the Act of Assembly, A set of Weights and Measures, by which all persons making use of weights and measures in the sale of any commodity, are obliged by said Act to have them regulated and stamped by the said Clerk, in one week after public notice thereof, under the penalty of forfeiting ~~Twenty~~ Twenty Shillings; for selling any commodity by weights and measures not so regulated and stamped. And persons selling by weights and measures less than the standard, shall forfeit the sum of Ten Pounds.

All beams and scales and steelyards, whether used by the inhabitants selling publicly, as also those used on board vessels lying at the wharves or at anchor, come under the above regulations.

N.B. Steelyards are only to be used for weighing hay.

He further gives notice that every Baker is required by the said Act to mark his bread with the first letter of his Christian and Sir-name, under the penalty of having it seized and forfeited to the use of the poor of the town.

JOHN MILLER, Clerk of Market, Living in Rodney lane.

---

The Subscriber being under the ~~the~~ absolute necessity of going to London in the ship Lord Middleton, Captain Hugill, which sails the first day of August, desires all persons having any demands against him to send in their accounts immediately, that they may be paid; and all those indebted to him, are earnestly requested to make payment before the said first day of August, to prevent their being left in the hands of an attorney, with positive instructions to be put in suit by the October term.

JOHN JULER

-----
TO BE SOLD

A dairy farm containing 257 acres, situated in Birch Town Valley. The beginning of the estate two miles and three quarters from Mr. Ackland's ferry at the head of Shelburne Bay; three miles and one quarter to the house, from the said ferry. The estate extends two miles and a half upon the banks of Birch Town River, which is navigable for large boats by the side of the estate, rendering the conveyance of the produce home very easy. The greatest part of the land consists of meadow cleared by nature, ready ~~for~~ for use. The situation of the house, rural and delightful, not to be equalled within seven miles of Shelburne. For particulars please to apply to Captain John Dickinson, King's Arms, George Street, or of the Subscriber,

CHA. MASON

Dep. ~~Surveyor~~ Surveyor.

-----
To be sold low for cash or good bills of exchange by M'LEAN and BOGLE, at their store at the foot of Ann-street.

A few puncheons of choice Jamaica spirits. A few hogsheads of Muscovado sugar of superior quality. A few barrels of very good coffee.

-----
Will positively Sail on or before the first of August

~~For London~~ FOR LONDON

The Ship

Lord Middleton, Henry Hugill commander.

She is a new vessel, sails very fast, and has excellent accommodations for passengers. For freight or passage apply to the Captain, at the Merchants Coffee House, or to Mr. George Gracie.

Captain Hugill presents his most respectful compliments to the Ladies and Gentlemen of Shelburne, and as he has put the Lord Middleton up for London, with a view of employing her as an annual ship for this port only, he entreats them earnestly to honour him with their commands, which will be attended to with the strictest punctuality, and all favours gratefully acknowledged.

-----
MINSHULL'S DEPOSITORY

For all kinds of merchandise at the corner of Ann and Water streets.

The Situation is eligible and needs no commendation, with excellent conveniences for the storing of property, and if wanted, Gentlemen may be furnished with genteel apartments, contiguous to their effects, and convenient to Public Sales.

Gentlemen that wish to dispose of their town or country lots, will please to send an accurate description to prevent unnecessary trouble; and due attention will be paid to the satisfaction of those Gentlemen and Ladies that honour me with their commands.

The office is open every day to receive Goods that are to be sold at Public Auction.

The goods sold to be delivered when the money is paid.

JOHN MINSHULL

To be sold by ~~Valentine~~
VALENTINE NUTTER, in Water Street, opposite the Court House.

Mess pork in barrels ; ditto beef in ditto; fish by the quintal; ship bread by the tierce; crackers by the cag; rum by the hogshead; cherry rum in barrels; orange juice by the gallon; London manufactured tobacco, in pound and half pound papers; snuff in bladders; fishermen's boots; cod lines and hooks; mackarel ditto; powder and shot; A general assortment of stationery. And many other articles.

Wanted in a family

A SOBER MAN SERVANT

Either white or black

A steady industrious man, with good recommendations, may hear of a place by applying to the printer.

