ART

NORTH END SCRAPBOOK

A participatory photographic resume of the life and times of North End residents, curated by Eye Level Gallery. Bring your own photographs to the show and add them to the display yourself. Opening reception at the Uniacke Square Tenants' Association, 2439 Gottingen Street, Tuesday, August 29, 7 p.m. Continues to September 8.

BLACK WIMMIN: WHEN AND WHERE WE ENTER

A Touring Exhibition of the work of ten outstanding Black Canadian Women Artists. "Art, community, politics, work, spirituality and emotion are presented as an entity...Traditionally Black art is not separate from craft, nor is pleasure from necessity. The exhibition is an attempt to celebrate the connectedness of all things in the lives of these artists." Opening reception at Eye Level Gallery, 2182 Gottingen Street, Tuesday, September 5th, 8 p.m. Continues to September 23rd. Phone 425-6412.

DAN OWENS: RECENT WORK

Unique and surprising, Dan Owens' Man & His Dog series is produced in oil pastels on paper. Opening September 9th, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Other Art, 2094 Gottingen Street. Phone 422-9464. The exhibition runs from September 1 to 30.

TEXTILE WORKSHOP FOR TEENS

With Chloe Onairi, indigo dye maker, whose work focuses on ancestral ties in the Black community. George Dixon Centre, Saturday, September 9th, 1 to 4 p.m. To pre-register, call 425-6412.

FILM + VIDEO

DO THE RIGHT THING written & directed by SpikeLee

Starring Spike Lee and Danny Aiello, with Ruby Dee & Ossie Davis. "Do the Right Thing paints the most excoriating picture of contemporary America...subtle in its intelligence, searing in its emotions, this is the kind of film where the questions posed are so fearfully precise, so devoid of political rhetoric and easy sentiment, that the lack of a single answer seems irrelevant....a harsh indictment of the promises unkept and a firm reminder of the miles to go before anyone really sleeps." Rick Groen, Globe & Mail. Wormwood's, 2015 Gottingen Street, August 25 to September 7. Phone 422-3700.

UPTALK

Uptalk is a short experimental documentary video intended to give a kaleidoscope scan of the community as it is now, showcasing the neighbourhoods' stability and vibrancy, qualities sometimes not evident to passersby. The people who live and work here, the landscape and the architecture are elements of the film. It will also serve as a historical document for those wanting to know more about the North End community and its culture. Produced by Centre for Art Tapes, 2156 Brunswick Street, 429-7299. Premieres August 25 to 27 in the lobby of Wormwood's, and will also be shown at the opening of the North End Scrapbook (see above). It will be available thereafter at the North Branch Library.

PERFORMANCE

TIGHTEN THE TRACES/HAUL IN THE REINS & THE BOAT Mulgrave Road Co-op Theatre

Conceived, written and performed by Robbie O'Neill, an ACTRA Award-winning performer. It is a vivid portrayal of the late Leo Kennedy of Canso, Nova Scotia, a man who overcame his physical disabilities to become a leading member of his community. The show has played to critical acclaim across Canada, and in Australia and Great Britain, and has been screened on CBC Television. Cunard Street Theatre, 5527 Cunard Street, August 28 and 29, 8 p.m. Phone 421-1902.

GOD'S TROMBONES by James Weldon Johnson

Internationally acclaimed Gospel musical. "In the lives of Black people, the church has always stood like a steadfast lighthouse through all the storms....The central character depicts a Black preacher who, in a time honoured tradition, had to be all things to his parishioners - religious counselor, teacher and comforter." Be part of the TV audience when CBC and Sight and Sound televises Walter Borden and the Waylolin Gospel Singers for national broadcast on Adrienne Clarkson's Summer Festival. Mr. Borden is an award-winning poet and actor whose work has been performed nationally and in Europe, and is well known locally for his roles at Neptune Theatre. Thursday and Friday, September 7 and 8, St. George's Church, 2222 Brunswick Street, 8 p.m. Free Admission.

SLO-PITCH TOURNAMENT

The First Annual Nova Scotia Black Cultural Slo-Pitch Tournament (formerly the Irvin Lucas Memorial Tournament). September 1, 2, 3 at the North Commons, Diamonds 9 and 3. Invitational event. Teams will compete all weekend, playing a minimum 3 games. The top 2 clubs will advance to the play-offs. Come for the good times. Play ball! Celebrate cultural awareness and Black history, and reunite with friends from across the province. Saturday night dance, location to be announced. Information: Curtis Coward 420-6000 or Clinton David 464-0274.
