Dear Ms. Mann Borgese,

On behalf and in the absence of the Secretary-General on an official trip to Asia, I wish to acknowledge your letter to him of 19 April 1979.

You may be certain that I shall bring this letter to the Secretary-General's attention upon his return to New York later this month and I am sure that he would wish me to thank you for informing him of your views concerning the Law of the Sea Conference.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
