Dear Nicole:

Here is that sheet with the edited recommendations. Please substitute these for the ones in the text. I now don't have that text to take to Paris!

Perhaps I shall fax you a fax number in Paris, and you can fax it to me there!

Here, also, are the pages Mahinda left for me. I already talked to him and gave him the corrections, but he would like to see it in writing. So he'll come and pick up these pages.

I can't think of anything else...

Merry Christmas again,

Elisabeth

Subject: rush job!

Dear Nicole,

here is the list of Commission members (without Vice presidents: They have the addresses; I don't have to send them.

My files are incomplete. where I made a mark, the address, including fax, should be completed

Kader Osmal

St. Jorre: I am sure we have a better address. The same for

Tommy Koh --no problem

Solofa --I don't know whether I got his first name correct. Margaret would know. Also a fax number.

We do have a fax number and more precise address for Fleischhauer. and perhaps we can do better for Rüd Lubbers.

John Kendrew would have to be looked up in Who's Who. He is a very well-known British Scientist. Either at Oxford or Cambridge.

Yankov you have

Kolodkin you have.

Oscar Arias must be on file as well.

Do we have an address for Ted Turner?

What address for Ronald Macdonald? Law School

James Baker was with NOAA in the United States. I think he is at some University now.

Do you think you could get it together by tomorrow???

Thanks. love,

Elroy

Subject: biographies

Hi, Nicole, and thanks for helping out.

Most of these c.v.s have enough information. I marked a few that need to be fattened a bit. For Suzuki, maybe there is a Who's Who in Asia, or Who's Who in Banking?

The most important is Mr. Lubbers. I even forgot his first name. He was Prime Minister of the Netherlands.

Another matter --since I have to be at that Oceans Day thing at 17:00 tomorrow, I prefer not to come to class tomorrow morning. Could you tell Dr. Jagota? Also: What is his phone number this year?

So long. I'll drop by before 5:00 tomorrow.

Love,

Elisabeth

Subject: Japan trip

Dear Michelle,

I hope I am not driving you up the wall, but I would like to suggest perhaps one more change.

I have received this very nice letter from the Vice President of Canadian Airline. He offers a free ticket to Japan, business class. As you know, I don't like business class on such long trips, because it is very bad for my leg. But I think this is an offer not to be sneezed at!

So could you find out whether it is possible to fly with Canadian to Tokyo and back, as we had scheduled, arriving in Tokyo on the 9th (or if necessary, on the 8th or the 10th) and leaving Tokyo on the 14th? You will find, on p. 2 of the letter, the numbers of the persons to get in touch with.

They would have to give me a lot of pillows so that I can keep my leg stretched.

All the best,

Elisabeth

Dear Michelle,

the attached is self-explanatory.

They are really going out of their way over there!

Although I don't really need a car from the air plane to the exit from the airport -- if that is what they want to provide, let them provide it!

I'll get spoiled rotten!

Let me use this opportunity to tell you how many nice complimentary words I have received from PIM participants about your exemplary efficiency and courtesy! Let me add my own appreciation as well!

Yours as ever,
